Stop at the monument to Russia's first gold mine (19 km of the Rezhevsky tract). The monument is set on top of the old mine dump. According to the historical reference in these places the peasant Erofey Markov found a piece of quartz with gold impregnations where in a consequence the first gold mine in Russia was based.

Visiting the training mine and getting acquainted with the work of miners and mountain rescuers, as well as the history of the beginning of gold mining in Russia with a dive into the mine. During the tour, tourists will visit the real base of rescuers, where they will learn all about the features of gold mining, touch minerals and rocks with their own hands, see a real prospecting tool with the remains of real gold, and the most devoted listeners will have the opportunity to touch the Chelyabinsk meteorite, thundered all over the world in 2013. After that, our guests will dive into the training mine, where they will experience the hard work of rescuers, as well as learn a lot of legends about gold mining, ride on a high-speed trolley, and learn how easy and simple it is to get a kilogram of gold at home. Well, in the end you can visit the souvenir shop, filled with selected works of Ural stone cutters and other artisans.

Visit to the Berezovsky Museum of the gold platinum industry of the Urals. More than 5 thousand exhibits are presented in the exposition of the Berezovsky Museum, many of them are unique. In total, the Museum has five rooms, which allowed the entire history of gold mining to be divided into thematic sections. The first hall tells about gold in General. The second is dedicated to the opening of erofei Markov and the beginning of the gold mining industry in the Urals in the 18th century. The discoveries of Lev Brusnitsyn and the life of prospectors of the 19th century are presented in the third hall. Fourth – the virtual plunges into the mine, where the special effects appear shade of prospectors. Finally, the last room is fully dedicated to the history of the city of Berezovsky and modern gold mining, which is conducted in our country to this day.

Visit the monument Erofei Markov, who discovered Russia's first ore gold, and the Assumption Church.
